

AUREUM UNALLIES THE WAR PHOENIX OVER ACCUSATIONS OF TOXICITY

The War Phoenix and Aureum have split their alliance after The War Phoenix was accused of bullying and toxicity. Beast, the head of Aureum, stated, "It's been brought to my attention by multiple people just how toxic their community is since migration to becoming a universal gaming hub". According to reports, War Phoenix is a branch of "The Hearth," which is mostly based in Minecraft. When approached for comment, Mehu, one of Phoenix's founders, stated, "...all of the pictures/photos that Beast...decided to post, were taken out of context and used in an offensive way to make me look like a racist" Furthermore, he stated, "We tried to talk with Beast, but he refused to stay calm and composed. He kept insulting us while we tried to ask why he tried to frame us", Beast denied this, and further countered Mehu's claim by saying that "this is infact what space, The Hearth's owner did to me when i sent out my first announcement before I got abruptly banned". The conflict is said to have been resolved, with the clans parting ways. This incident was reported by a news reporter.

@Approved

Summary of their actions:

1 . Repeated harrassment//bullying towards members of my community (Mehu and Doccy & his friends)

2 . Jokes that include racism, homophobia, children (their community)

3 . Threatening to dox one of my members "as a joke" (Mehu)

4 . Cheating on their own MC server (and admitting to it) (Mehu)

5 . Calling me the f-word among other slurs in VC before banning me (Space)

6 . Balantly lying to their community about me and the issues I brought to light (higherups from their community)

7 . Attempting to hide evidence after the Agora News get involved (higherups from their community)

7-2. Pretending to have a disability//using disabilities and/or being gay//black in order to "make ME look more like a dick" (Mehu)

8 . Telling your members in VC to stay silent about the situation so that reporters go astray (Space)

NEW BOT CREATED!

Discord bot maker, Cecilia, with the help of fellow bot maker BritishBaguet, has created a discord bot for Arcane Odyssey servers. The bot is called Asvxin, it allows users to put assassination contracts on players, these contracts can be viewed in all servers the bot is in, and cashed out in the bots main server. The bot was created on June 10th of this year, and has been growing since. Cecilia, the bots main creator commented "Asvxin is an advanced bot designed to enhance the gameplay experience in the world of Arcane Odyssey...When it comes to assassinations, Asvxin provides players with a comprehensive to organize and execute player-driven contracts". This story was brought to Hydro Headlines attention by Skunk_Pit.

AO Bots on a whole new level

Functionality

 Asvxin is an advanced bot designed to enhance the gameplay experience in the world of Arcane Odyessy, serving two primary functions: managing assassinations and hosting an auction market for in-game items.

 When it comes to assassinations, Asvxin provides players with a comprehensive system to organize and execute player-driven contracts. Players can submit their assassination requests to Asvxin, specifying their targets and desired parameters.

 By combining the functionalities of managing assassinations and offering an auction market, Asvxin enriches the AO gaming experience. It provides players with the opportunity to participate in thrilling assassinations while also engaging in a vibrant marketplace where they can trade coveted in-game items. Whether players seek intense combat or strategic trading, Asvxin serves as a reliable and versatile bot, catering to the diverse interests within the AO community.

Why Asvxin

 Asvxin, with a presence in over 21 servers while managing over 1000 players, provides access to 10 + useful commands. You can benefit from efficient assassination management, a dynamic auction market, enhanced item evaluation opportunities, and reliable and advanced features enjoyed by a large and active user base.

 Additionally, Asvxin incorporates an auction market command (/auction)* that caters to the trading aspect of AO. This feature enables players to buy and sell in-game items through an auction-style system. Players can list their items with starting bids and auction durations, creating a competitive environment where others can place bids to acquire these items. The auction market command fosters an active and dynamic marketplace, where players can showcase their trading prowess and secure valuable or rare items.

 Finally, Asvxin also includes item evaluation and magical statistics given by trusted sources.

 Asvxin is also updated daily so no worries about the bot development stopping.

 The bot offers the advantage of having minimal risky permissions. The bot prioritizes user safety by strictly controlling the permissions it requires. The most extensive permission it utilizes is the "manage threads" permission, which, in reality, has limited impact and poses minimal risk to users' privacy and security. This ensures that players can enjoy the benefits of Asvxin without compromising their personal information or granting excessive access to their accounts.

*Asvxin auction command coming 20.06.23 or later

Why don't yall give the bot a spin? It can be found on the Hydro Headlines server!

PROMOTION SYSTEM GLITCHED

The clan promotion system seems to be over promoting members, where promoting members once will sometimes ranks them up 2 or 3 levels, even promoting up to the leader rank.

This glitch recently happened to the leader of Star Stream, where his leader role was switched with one of his member. It is being urged that clan leaders proceed with caution when using the promotion system. Story was broken by a clan representative.

Mezzy Today at 4:55 AM
Hey, can you explain me what exactly happened when you promoted your member, and how you were able to get back you leadership and your encounter with the vextex server staff?

Silver Demon Today at 7:03 AM
So first off, I decided to promote my members from the lowest rank, whilst I was doing so, for some reason the promotion system had glitched and instead of promoting them 1 time, it had promoted them an entire 3 promotions which causes them to gain the Leader rank, It had happened without any warning I received no warning stating I was promoting them to leader. The way I had managed to get it back though was by contacting my member, it had taken a few hours but it eventually worked out. Although after waiting for a few solid hours and receiving no response I contacted vetex's staff and they helped me calm down by telling me that it was possible to get it back if the member refused to do so, first they'd want you to wait a bit in case the member would reply back or not, if not they'd do it themselves. But whilst talking to them apparently the glitch happened to others. Apparently one of the ways the glitched worked as stated from another leader was, when promoting highest ranked members as soon as you promote the lowest apparently it still gives the "Leader" promotion. But mines was a bit different as that never occurred to me it, it had just said "promote" (edited)

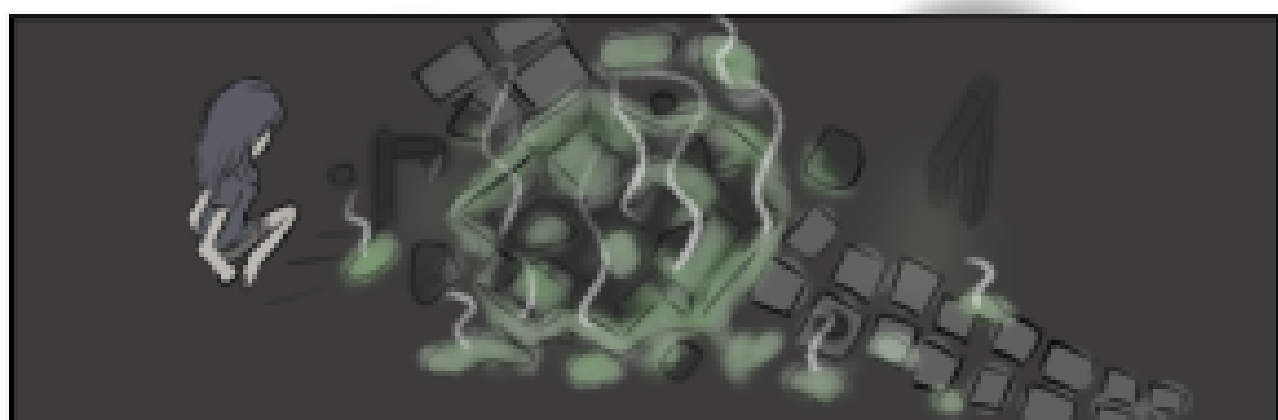

The game is still under works, Expect the unexpected!
